

Basic Descant Arpeggios

This sheet of music, titled "Basic Descant Arpeggios," is written in 6/4 time and consists of 13 staves. Each staff contains a sequence of arpeggiated chords, typically spanning four measures. The chords are indicated by various accidentals (sharps, flats, naturals) on the notes, creating a variety of harmonic colors. The notation is presented in a clean, black-and-white format on a white background.

This image displays a page of musical notation, specifically page 2 of a score. It contains 14 staves of music, each written in a single treble clef. The notation is a continuous melodic line, likely for a single instrument or voice part. The music is characterized by a series of eighth and sixteenth notes, often beamed together in groups. The key signature and time signature are not explicitly shown, but the notation includes various accidentals (sharps, flats, and naturals) and rests. The overall style is that of a technical exercise or a short piece of music, possibly a study or a prelude. The page is numbered '2' in the top left corner.
